Notes for William Carson Skinner:

General Notes:

Bill and Leona moved from Colorado to California in the fall of 1940 when their youngest child Kenneth William was 3 mos old. They loaded up their model A Ford and along with Bill's brother Jiggs (Alvord Carson Skinner) headed west toward California. Along with Kenneth their other children were Eugene and Frieda. They made a hammock and strung it across the interior of the car so the baby could lay down. Their destination in California was Orange Co, California where Leona's uncle William McQueen lived. Along the way they spent a couple of days with Leona's uncle Hugh McQueen in Arizona and then continued on toward California. They stayed with William McQueen until Bill was able to get a job. Leona's cousin Delbert McQueen would drive Bill around to different job prospects. Bill was able to get a job with Douglas Aircraft in EI Segundo. They moved to EI Segundo and purchased a house at 510 W Palm Ave. Two more children were born while they lived in EI Segundo, Barbara Jane and Marguerite Stella. In 1947 they moved to Lawndale where Danny and Robert were born. The home in EI Segundo was need of a great deal of repair, termites nearly destroyed the house. So purchasing another home was cheaper than repairing the existing one. They stayed in Lawndale for 33 years. They raised 7 children there. In 1975 Bill retired from Hughes Aircraft and in 1980 Leona retired from the retail business, manager of the Super Yam Mart. They sold their house in Lawndale and move to Ventura, California. Leona died in Ventura in 1986 and in 1991 Bill moved to Morro Bay, California. In June of 1993 Bill moved to Fresno. There on October 23 he died from complications of "Aplastic Enemia".

Notes

William Carson Skinner

Bill and Leona moved from Colorado to California in the fall of 1940 when their youngest child Kenneth William was 3 mos old. They loaded up their model A Ford and along with Bill's brother Jiggs (Alvord Carson Skinner) headed west toward California. Along with Kenneth their other children were Eugene and Frieda. They made a hammock and strung it across the interior of the car so the baby could lay down. Their destination in California was Orange Co, California where Leona's uncle William McQueen lived. Along the way they spent a couple of days with Leona's uncle Hugh McQueen in Arizona and then continued on toward California. They stayed with William McQueen until Bill was able to get a job. Leona's cousin Delbert McQueen would drive Bill around to different job prospects. Bill was able to get a job with Douglas Aircraft in El Segundo. They moved to El Segundo and purchased a house at 510 W Palm Ave. Two more children were born while they lived in El Segundo, Barbara Jane and Marguerite Stella. In 1947 they moved to Lawndale where Danny and Robert were born. The home in El Segundo was need of a great deal of repair, termites nearly destroyed the house. So purchasing another home was cheaper than repairing the existing one. They stayed in Lawndale for 33 years. They raised 7 children there. In 1975 Bill retired from Hughes Aircraft and in 1980 Leona retired from the retail business, manager of the Super Yam Mart. They sold their house in Lawndale and move to Ventura, California. Leona died in Ventura in 1986 and in 1991 Bill moved to Morro Bay, California. In June of 1993 Bill moved to Fresno. There on October 23 he died from complications of "Aplastic Enemia".

Generation 4 (con't)

William Weekly Hornish was born in Gallia County, Oyo, October 4, 1838, the son of Abraham and Elizabeth Jane McCall Hornish. William, at a young age, emigrated to Iowa. On May 22, 1862 he married Elizabeth Ellen Northup, in Sigourney, Iowa. She was born in Gallia County, Ohio, January 22, 1846 to Harriet Elizabeth (Gilbert) and Steven Northup (I believe this is actually Northrup). She moved with her parents to Keokuk, Iowa, when she was eight years old and grew to womanhood at that place. She joined the United Brethren Church at the age of fifteen and was a devout Christian the rest of her life.

While still in Iowa, William enlisted in the Civil War, was a Private in Company F, 40 Iowa Regiment. During the time he was away someone set fire to their home and in order to escape, Elizabeth threw a mattress out an upstairs window to jump on. She carried burn scars on her back the rest of her life.

In late February 1874, William, Elizabeth and five little daughters started out for Kansas, with his father-in-law, Steven Northup and his three children, Charles, Emma and Nancy. Steven, William and Elizabeth each drove a covered wagon and the trip took four weary months before they settled in Medicine Township, in June.

There they became charter members of the United Brethren Church in Woodston. They were parents of eleven children, two dying in infancy: Harriet Eldora, Nettie Jane, Mary Nevada (Mollie), Charity Augusta, Josie Ellen, Asa Gilbert (Bert), Maude May, Roy Elwood, Rose Emma (my grandmother).

The father, William, died at his home in Lowell Township, August 14, 1895. The services were held in the Raceburg Schoolhouse and burial was in the Woodston Cemetery. His wife, Elizabeth, died January 9, 1919, and is buried beside her husband.

The HORNISHES were a Pennsylvania Dutch family and were descended from a Jacob Harnist, an early settler of Lancaster Co, Pennsylvania. The name is spelled 4 different ways in one document. He was in Lancaster Co, before 1720 and was probably from Switzerland,. Most of the Harnish family were and are Mennonites. However, a couple of other researchers have tentatively identified our ancestors as Lutherans. These old Dutchers hid themselves pretty well, it didn't help that no one (including themselves) could spell their names - in English, that is.
